City of Columbia City, Oregon
Regulations applicable to Exception Permit for Recreational Vehicle, Boat or Trailer Storage in Public Right-of-Way
Ordinance No. 504 amended by Ordinance No. 13-674-O

An exception permit for a recreational vehicle, boat or trailer stored in an unimproved right of way requires the following:

- 1) The storage authorized under the Exception Permit must be parked directly adjacent to residentially zoned property legally occupied by the owner of the storage; and
- 2) The storage must be kept at least six (6) feet from the edge of the paved street and shall not obstruct views of traffic or create a dangerous or hazardous condition; and
- 3) Only one Exception Permit may be applicable to a single property at any time; and
- 4) The storage must be maintained in proper condition. For purposes of this permit, proper condition means:
 - a) Licensed, operable and insured;
 - b) No visible damaged parts;
 - c) No peeling, blistering, rusting, mossy or otherwise deteriorating exterior surfaces;
 - d) No flat tires;
 - e) No deteriorating or torn tarps or covers or trash storage;
 - f) All awnings, slide-outs and pop-ups must be closed, except for purposes of loading, unloading and general maintenance;
 - g) All grass, weeds or similar vegetation in or around storage mowed to lawn height; and
- 5) This Exception Permit shall be issued for the specific recreational vehicle, boat or trailer identified on this application; and
- 6) This Exception Permit is non-transferable; and
- 7) The City Council may revoke this Exception Permit at any time. All Exception Permits are subordinate to the City and the public to make any use of the right-of-way that is permitted by law.

City immunity from liability:

- 1) No recourse whatsoever shall be had or available against the City, its elected officials, officers, employees or agents for damage, injury or loss to any person or property arising directly or indirectly out of the negligent otherwise wrongful construction, maintenance, inspection, repair, recreational vehicle, boat or trailer placed in the public right-of-way or for any act or omission in violation of this ordinance.
- 2) In consideration for the City allowing a person owning, possessing, occupying or having control of real property that abuts or is adjacent the public right-of-way to maintain, inspect, repair, recreational vehicle, boat or trailer placed in the public right-of-way, such person shall indemnify, defend and hold the City, its elected officials, officers, employees and agents harmless against any claim, suit or action made against the City, its elected officials, officers, employees and agents as a result of any person's failure to satisfy any obligation imposed by this ordinance.
- 3) The permittee holds the City harmless for any and all causes of action to and including negligence of the City.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed as a permanent conveyance, grant or transfer of a property interest or permanent private right in any public right-of-way.
